\(^1\) General Data Protection Regulation

\(^2\) Austrian Data Protection Act
Legal basis for the data processing:
This use of personal data is based on article 6, paragraph 1, letters c) (legal obligation) and e) (performance of a task in the public interest) GDPR read together with § 3, numeral 7 of the 2002 University Act (“Support of national and international cooperation in the field of academic research and teaching and art”).

Category of recipients of the personal data:
Your personal data are forwarded on the basis of statutory regulations or rather contractual agreement to the following recipients who are directly involved in the event procedure and if the organizational procedure requires this.

- Hotels (Only if we support the participants to find an accommodation for the purpose of the RMMM 2019)

Purpose of the data processing:
The biennial RMMM conferences bring together scientists developing reliable methods for mathematical modeling. The topics of the conference include applied and numerical analysis, methods for the control of modeling and numerical errors, algorithmic aspects, challenging applications, and novel discretization methods for the numerical approximation of PDEs. The 9th edition of the conference takes place on September 9-13, 2019 in Vienna. We collect your personal data for processing and transmission of data for the organization and management of the RMMM 2019.

Advertising of the event with personal data:
Personal data of selected persons such as lecturers, members of the scientific committee and participants in a panel discussion (name, employer) are published for the purpose of advertising the event. The list of participants for the RMMM 2019 will be remain publicly (also after the end of the conference).

Data processing for purposes of submission of abstracts
Submission of your academic work for the event in question is not possible without collecting, storing and processing personal data. This occurs exclusively for the purpose of organizing and conducting the event. Your data are only passed on to third parties directly involved in the event organization procedure and only if the procedure makes this necessary (e.g. Academic committee organizing society, reviewer, publisher).

Data processing for purposes of management and security of the system
Due to applicable statutory data security regulations, several items of your data are processed for management and security of the system, including for user code management, allocation of hardware and software to system users as well as for the security of the system. This includes text documents generated and stored with automated support (such as correspondence) in these matters. Without this data processing safe operation of the system and thus employment in our undertaking is not possible.

Images
In the context with the event, images will be produced for which we need your consent in the registration form. The images are used for marketing purposes (event reports, advertising of subsequent events and self marketing) and for documentation purposes. If you are not in agreement with the use of these images, you can contact us at any time under rmmm2019@asc.tuwien.ac.at. We will provide special areas where there will be no photographing.
Transmittal to third parties:

No third-party firms work outside the EU.

Retention period for storage:
We store your data for the purpose of conducting the event and beyond that for the duration of statutory retention periods or as long as legal claims can be asserted against TU Wien or rather as long as consent was given.

Your rights in connection with personal data:
As a concerned party in this data processing you have the following rights in relation to TU Wien:

- Right to information
- Right to correction
- Right to deletion
- Right to restriction of processing
- Right to data portability
- Right to object

Right to revocation under article 7 GDPR:
Depending on your “person category” we ask you for various different consent declarations. They are retrieved inside online registration or directly from the relevant person, group coordinator or company representative. Every concerned person has the right to revoke in writing or by email to rmmm2019@asc.tuwien.ac.at at any time the consent once given. Revocation of the consent declaration does not affect the legality of the processing accomplished prior to the revocation.

Right to appeal:
If you feel that the processing of your data violates data protection law or your data protection law claims in any other way, you can file appeal with the Austrian Data Protection Authority (https://dsb.gv.at/).
